

Without waiving these objections, Defendant responds: Defendant can neither admit nor deny this request for the reasons set forth in the foregoing objections.

REQUEST NO. 92:

Admit that you told Richard Carrier to send you a message through Facebook about the future possibility of opening your relationship.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 92:

Defendant objects to this Request as vague and ambiguous. The Facebook message speaks for itself.

Without waiving these objections, Defendant responds: Denied.

REQUEST NO. 93:

Admit that the document previously provided to you as Plaintiff's Discovery Document Bates No. 0003, and here below reproduced for convenience, contains a complete and correct copy of all the messages you and Richard Carrier exchanged through Facebook. (For reference, the UTF-32 Hex code "0FE347" produces a standard winking-face emoji, per the resource guide at <https://www.emoji.com/view/emoji/5/smileys-people/winking-face>)

Amy Skiba, Richard Carrier

Amy Skiba

Sunday, April 5, 2015 at 9:04pm PDT

You actually opened a pretty serious dialogue between Phil and I and progress is being made. Haha. So maybe by the next time you're in Phoenix he'll be okay with it :p

Amy Skiba

Sunday, April 5, 2015 at 12:24am PDT

You made my night :)

Richard Carrier

Saturday, April 4, 2015 at 11:32pm PDT

Having seen you defend your opinions and interact with people for a night, I can confidently say you will make an excellent president of the group next year. I also said I'd send you something inappropriate later. I'll confine that to just demurely saying now that if ever you are free or can convince Phil to go for it, I'd love to. You are really exciting and beautiful. Make sure Phil keeps on respecting that. ^{OFF} Otherwise I'll conclude my flirting with that. Great meeting you! Go forth, take charge, and kick ass!

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 93:

Admitted.

REQUEST NO. 94:

Admit that you sent a Facebook message to Richard Carrier telling him "You actually opened a pretty serious dialogue between Phil and I and progress is being made. Haha. So maybe by the next time you're in Phoenix he'll be okay with it :p" over twenty hours after your previous response to his lone message to you.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 94:

Admitted.

REQUEST NO. 95:

Admit that your second Facebook message to Richard Carrier demonstrates that you did not tell him you wished not to discuss opening your relationship with him by Facebook messaging.